PICHI RICHI RAILWAY DINNER

FRIDAY APRIL 22nd, 7.30pm

Standpipe Golf Restaurant, Port Augusta

featuring guest speaker
Tim Fischer
on "Tango in Trains and Tourism"

Tim Fischer, former Army Officer, former NSW State Parliamentarian, former Leader of the National Party, Minister for Trade & Deputy Prime Minister, now Consultant and Company Director and Multiple Patron. He is married to Judy, with two sons, Harrison and Dominic, and lives in the Riverina of NSW. Tim is the author of three successful books, and has a number of works in progress.

Tim is the current Chairman of Tourism Australia, and Patron of Pichi Richi Railway.

Tim is coming to the Flinders Ranges to open Pichi Richi Railway's Steam Up event and launch the Coffee Pot's 100th anniversary celebrations at Quorn on April 23rd.

Join us and other members of the tourism industry for this special evening with Tim Fischer. The three course set menu - including donated wine - is $60. Special dietary needs can be catered for, but must be arranged in advance.

Numbers are limited, booking by Monday 18th April is essential.
